

Handout: Session 10, part 2

Narrating the construction and use of a representation

- Make clear the mathematical problem or context.
- Describe how a particular representation is useful for the problem at hand.
- Construct the representation and use it to solve the task, while describing and giving meaning to each step.
- Summarize what the representation has helped to do.